If you ask us to assist you in finding a credit provider, and arrange a suitable loan to meet your objectives, we have to provide you with a quote.

Prohibition on suggesting or assisting with unsuitable contracts

Our general obligations to you:

The National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (Cth) does not permit us to provide credit assistance to a consumer by:

- suggesting that you apply, or assisting you to apply, for a particular credit contract with a particular credit provider; or
- suggesting that you apply, or assisting you to apply, for an increase to the credit limit of a particular credit contract with a particular credit provider, if the credit contract will be unsuitable for you.

A credit contract will be unsuitable for you, if at the time the credit assistance is provided, it is likely that:

- you will be unable to comply with your financial obligations under the contract, or could only comply with substantial hardship; or
- the contract does not meet your requirements or objectives.

We are required to make a preliminary assessment of whether the contract is unsuitable for you before we suggest that you apply or assist you to apply for a credit contract (or an increase to your credit limit).

In making this assessment, we will only take into account information that satisfies both of the following requirements:

- the information is about your financial situation, requirements or objectives; and
- at the time the credit assistance is provided:
 - we had reason to believe that the information was true; or
 - we would have had reason to believe that the information was true if we had made reasonable inquiries about you.

To enable us to do this, we will ask about your financial situation and your requirements and objectives in relation to the credit contract. We may request copies of documents such as pay slips and past tax returns. We may also ask you to supply other proof of your ability to repay the loan.

We are required to verify certain financial information. If you do not provide us with full information, we can't properly assist you. For this reason, it is important that you provide us with complete and accurate information.

You can request a copy of our preliminary assessment at any time within 7 years after we provide a credit quote. If you request a copy of your preliminary assessment we must provide you with a copy at no charge to you.

We must provide the written copy within 7 business days if your request is made within two years of the credit quote or otherwise within 21 business days. We do not need to give you a copy of the preliminary assessment if your request is made more than 7 years after the date of the credit quote or if credit assistance was not provided to you.

Commission

Commission paid by credit providers

We will receive a commission from a preferred credit provider if you enter into a credit contract with that provider. The amount of the commission that we receive in relation to any particular credit contract depends on the credit provider, the amount of the loan and the terms of the loan. The amount of the commission can range from 0% to 25% of the total amount financed.

In addition, we may also receive a volume bonus from a credit provider depending on the total value of loans placed with that credit provider during the month. The amount of this bonus can range anywhere from 0% to 4% of the total amount financed and it is paid in arrears.

Commission paid by us

From the commission and bonuses we receive from the preferred credit providers we may pay:

- our representatives a commission which is in addition to their salary; and
- referral fees or commissions to people or businesses that referred you to us.

You have the right to request an estimate of how much these payments may be and how the commissions or fees are worked out.
